RICHMOND, VA., Dec. 21 .- Judge R. W. Hughes of the United States Supreme Court, to-day decided three cases of interest to coupon litigents. Two of these cases were from Fauquier and the other from London county. The effect of Judge Hughes' decision is to require those who tender coupons in payment of taxes to deliver the same to the Clerk of the United States Circuit Court. Heretotore those preferring to use coupons for this purpose merely made the tender to the collecting officer. If he refused them, the taxpayer retained them them, the taxpayer refained them and contented himself with the ten der as legal payment of the demand.
